DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

DEAR STUDENTS,

A war can be a touchy issue. We have known, this year, that new experiences do not come from looking backward, but from looking upward and forward. For many of you it has been a wonderful school year, filled with achievements and success, but for the rest of us, it has been a process of bruised hands and hurt knees as we tried, as we forged forward into the unknown sectors of what people call «knowledge». Often there comes a time when one wonders about the content in life. Will there be any change to it later? The answer is simply stated as . . .

Where there was war, there is peace,
Where there was hunger, there is plenty,
Where there was hate, there is love,
Where there was oppression, there is freedom,
Where there was despair, there is hope,
Where there was apathy, there is concern,
Where there was prejudice, there is understanding,
Where there was anxiety, there is certainty,
AND Where there was Mammon, there is God.

Yes, some of us came with our dreams; others came to search. The wise found that there are no endings, only beginnings. May this be your motto as you read through this issue of Pine Echoes 1978.

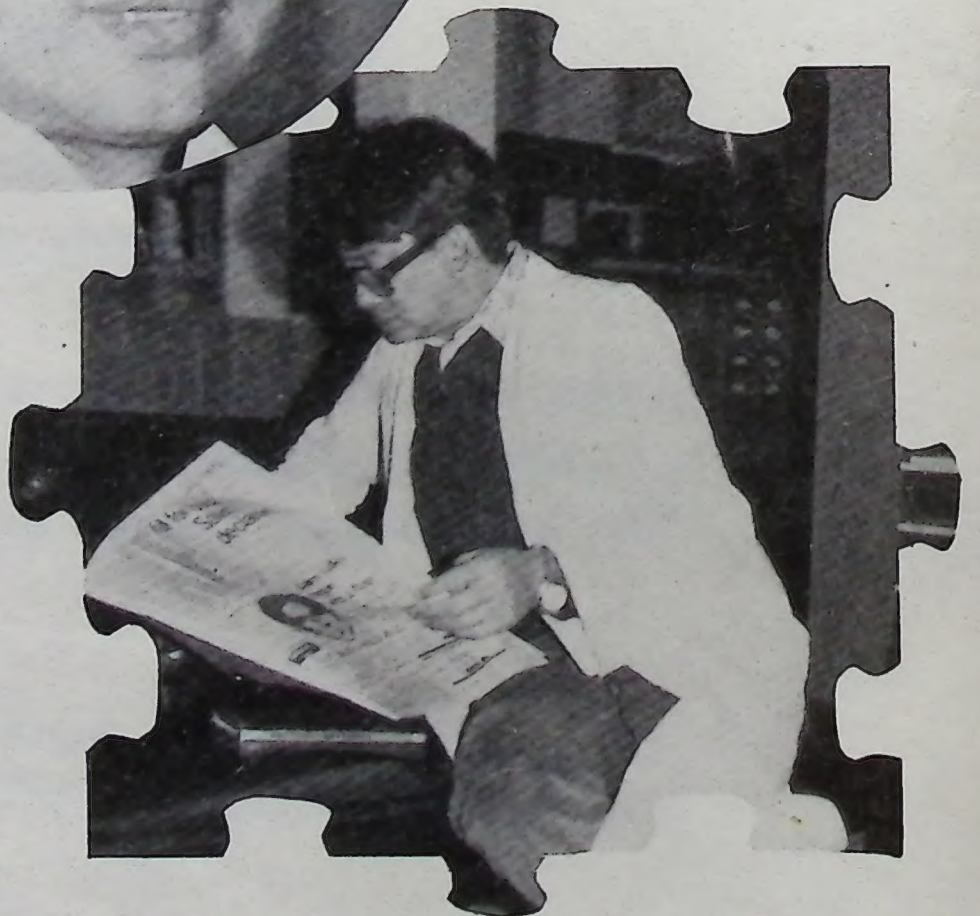

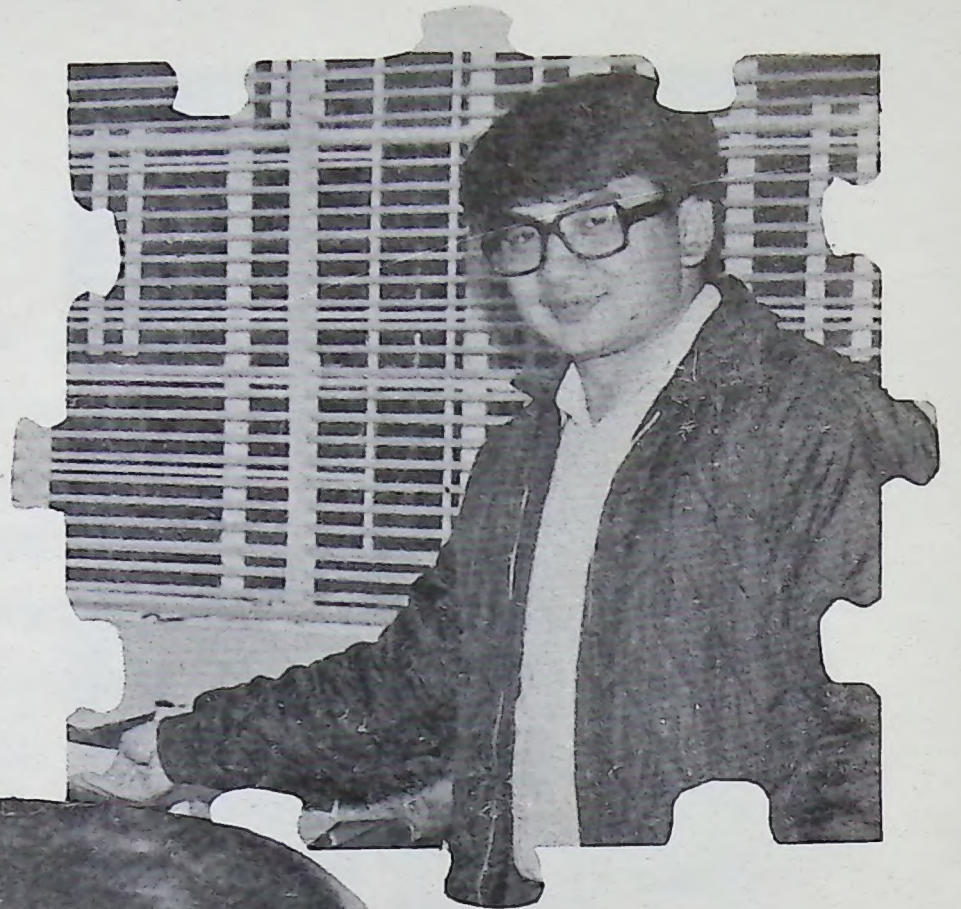

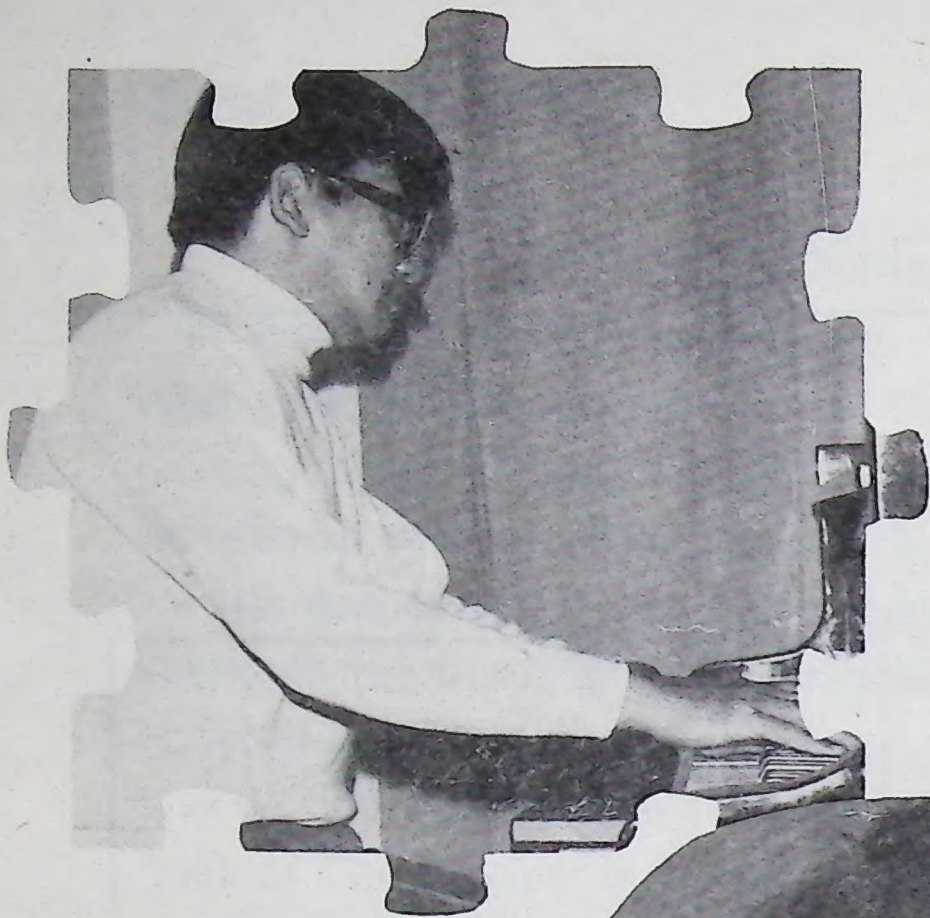

*Yours Sincerely,
The Staff of Pine Echoes 1978*

FOR SHOWING US ...

That Man is a part of the puzzle of life,
That each piece has its own unique design and purpose,
And when a Man is willing,
He helps to make the puzzle of life complete,
By accepting his role and fitting his individual piece.

FOR GIVING US ...

The extra boost,
When we were down in the dumps;
For showing us that kindness is the oil
That takes the friction out of life.

FOR CREATING IN US ...

The challenge of Man,
By presenting yourself as a challenge to us;
And showing us that it is better to look ahead
And prepare, than to look back and regret.

FOR TREATING EACH OF US ...

As special beings,
By accepting us with our infirmities;
And for telling us that there is no
Right way to do a wrong thing.

To You, Dr. Chan,
We dedicate our annual,
With deep gratitude for
Your sincere participation
In the success of the
Students and the College.

PRESIDENT OF MIDDLE EAST COLLEGE

A GROWING PLACE

Life here, now, is a growing time, a maturing time . . . This world is the growing place. It is the only place we have, and life is the only time we have, for the unrealized potential within us to become real. It is in this place, and this time called life, that we experience whatever fulfillment, whatever achievement will ultimately be ours.

To provide an atmosphere where growth may the more readily take place, educational institutions have been established. Certain ones of these exist for the specific purpose of providing an academic nurturing plan during that difficult but exciting period between secondary school and adulthood. These institutions are often identified by the term University College, or just College.

Middle East College is such an institution. It is a growing place. However, it differs from the ordinary College in that the philosophy of education followed here recognizes that real growing must be in terms of the simultaneous development of every facet of man's nature — the spiritual, mental, social, and physical.

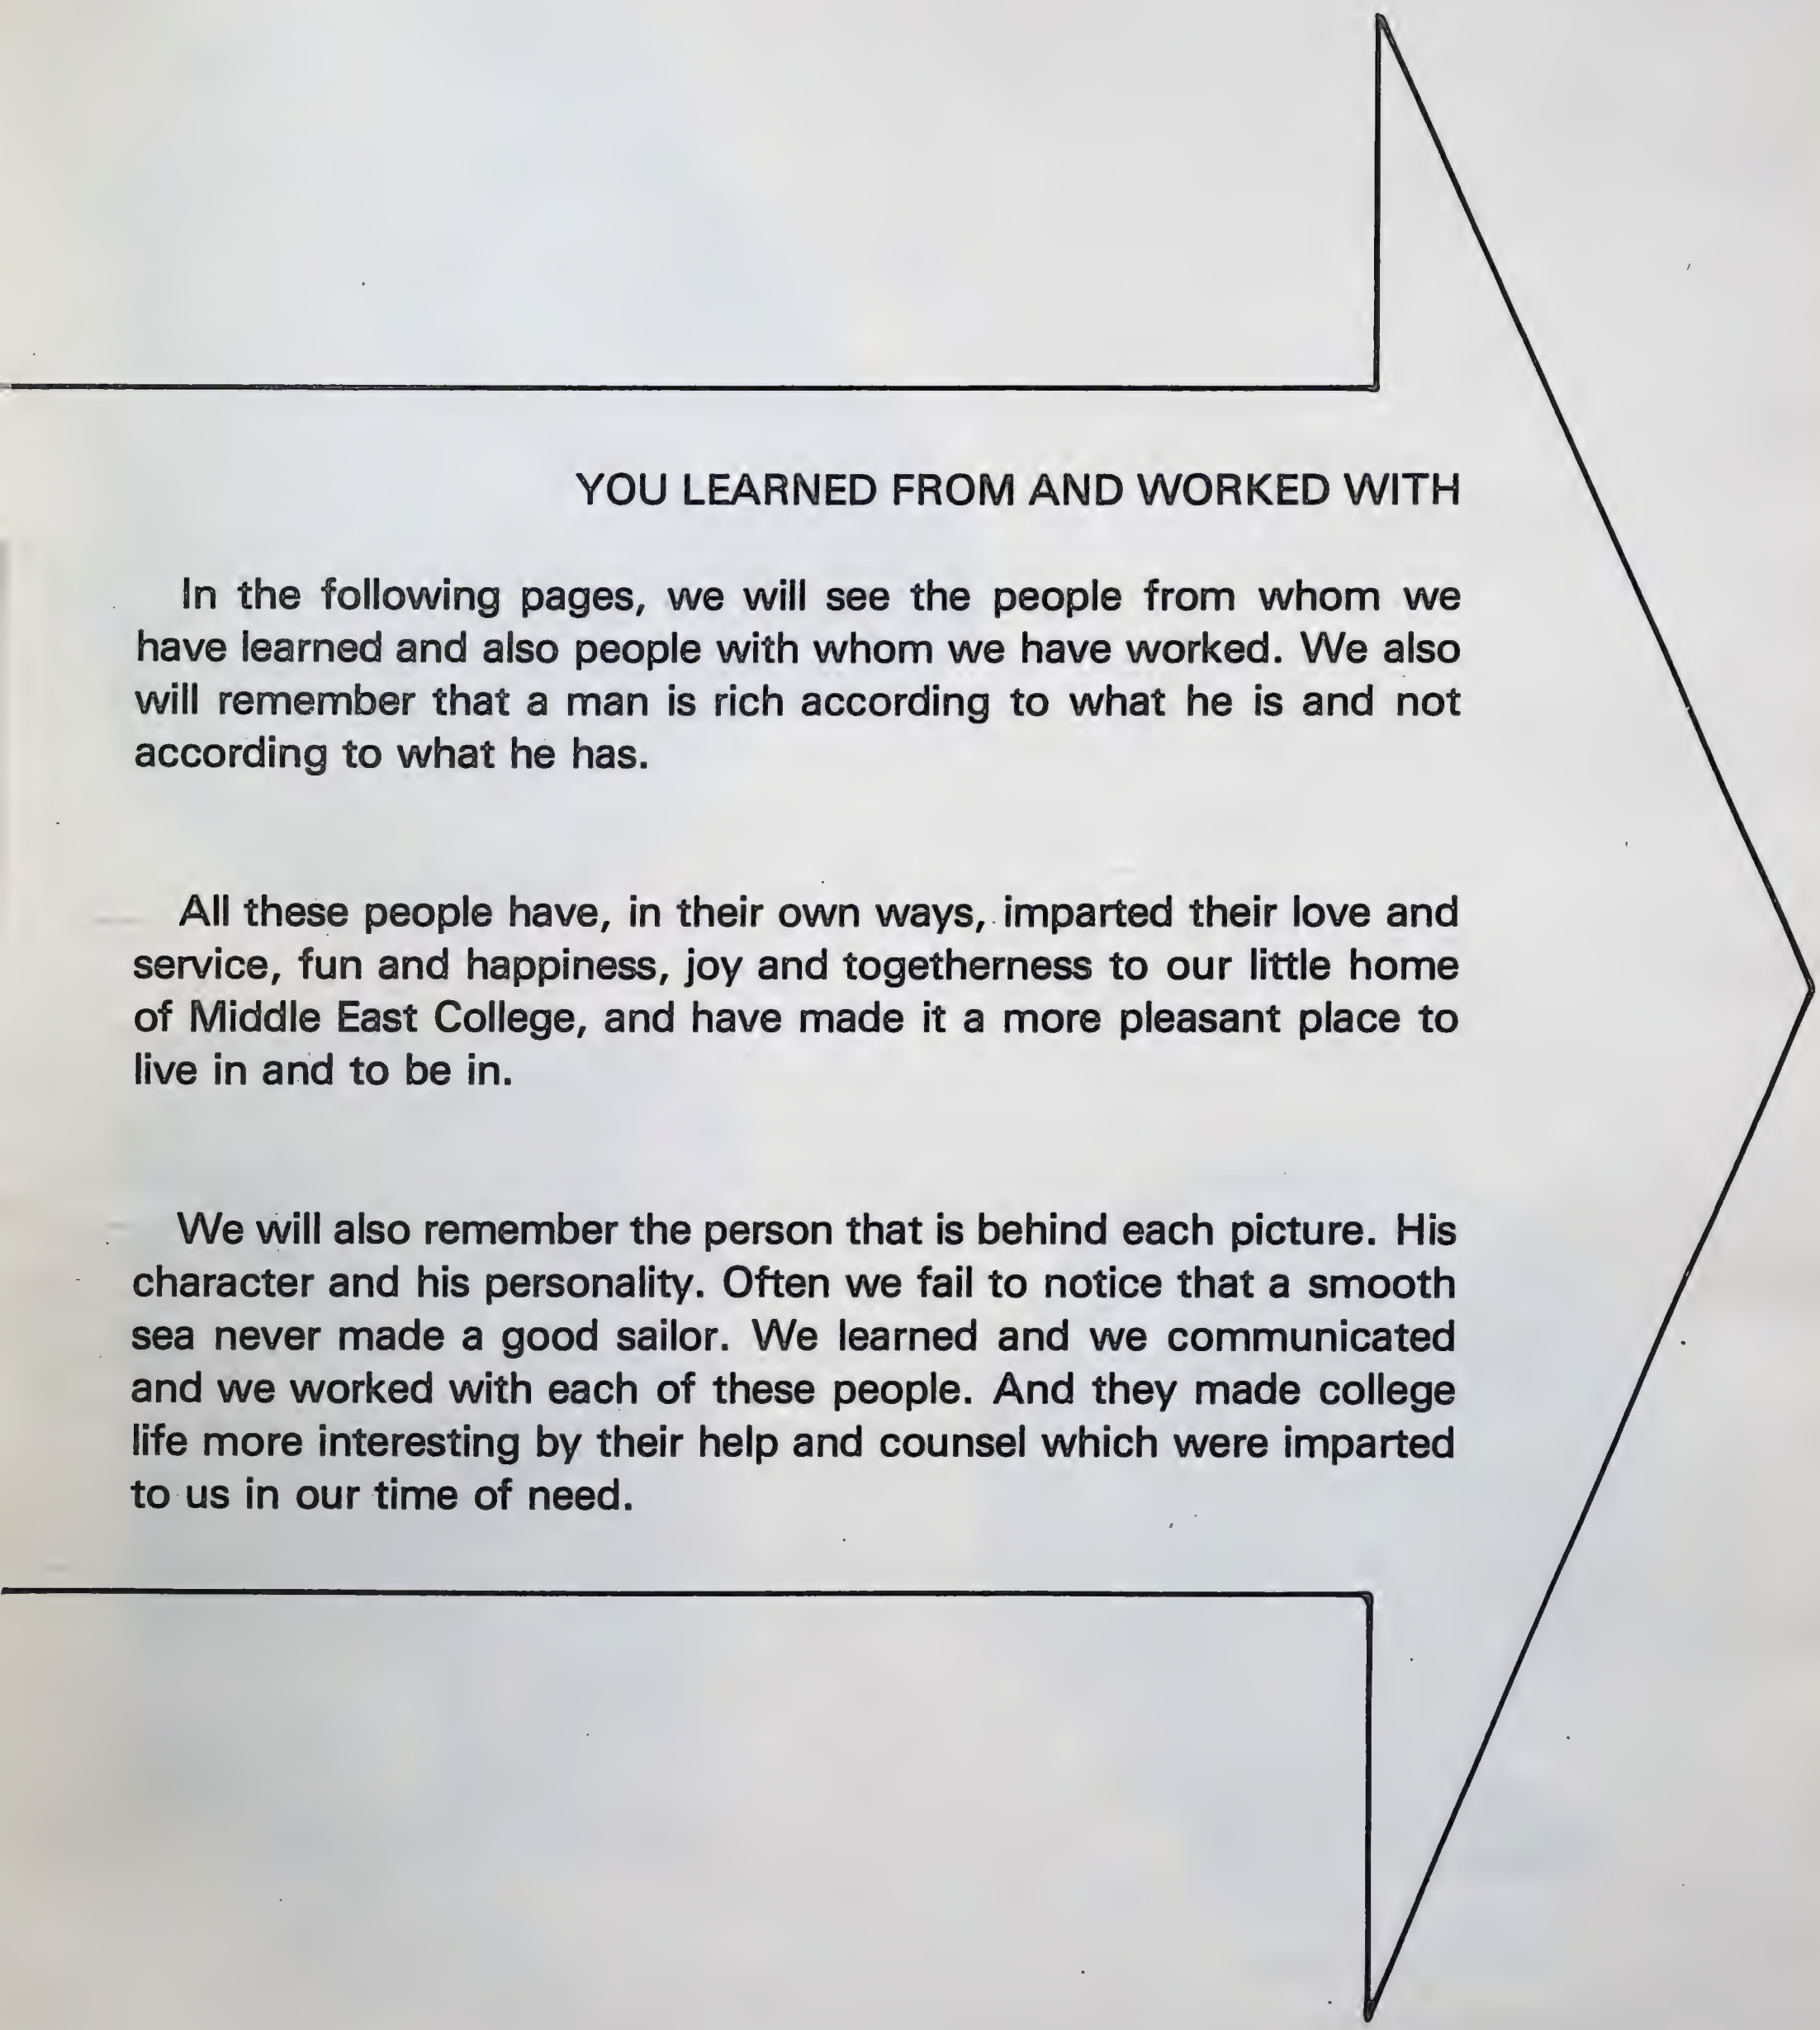

True education gives to the world young people who are not only better in their chosen vocation, but what the world needs even more, young people who have experienced spiritual growth. Such persons have the additional quality of sensitivity and awareness of the condition and needs of people around them. They have been transformed in mind and spirit to live at a level above that of mere selfish existence. They have accepted the principle that life's highest achievement "is believing and living for causes that survive us and doing things that outlast us".

This is the kind of growing place Middle East College endeavors to be. This is the type of growth pattern Middle East College offers to each one who comes here.

U Learned From . . .

YOU LEARNED FROM AND WORKED WITH

In the following pages, we will see the people from whom we have learned and also people with whom we have worked. We also will remember that a man is rich according to what he is and not according to what he has.

All these people have, in their own ways, imparted their love and service, fun and happiness, joy and togetherness to our little home of Middle East College, and have made it a more pleasant place to live in and to be in.

We will also remember the person that is behind each picture. His character and his personality. Often we fail to notice that a smooth sea never made a good sailor. We learned and we communicated and we worked with each of these people. And they made college life more interesting by their help and counsel which were imparted to us in our time of need.

It has been my privilege to get to know you. You have been a very good Christian teacher and mother for each one of us. I feel sorry that I am leaving MEC on the other hand, I am glad to finish and go to serve God in a wider place. You have been a very good example to look at in the times of difficulties as well as in the times of ease. May God bless you as you continue serving Him.

PHONIC TONIC

When the English tongue we speak
 Why is "break" not rhymed with "freak"?
 Will you tell me why it's true
 We say "sew" but likewise "few"
 And the maker of a verse,
 Cannot rhyme his "horse" with "worse"?
 "Beard" is not the same as "heard";
 "Cow" is cow but "low" is low;
 "Show" is never spelled like "foe"
 Think of "hose" and "dose" and "lose";
 And think of "goose" and yet of "choose";
 Think of "comb" and "tomb" and "bomb"
 "Doll" and "roll" and "home" and "some".
 And since "pay" is rhymed with "say"
 Why not "paid" with "said" I pray?
 Think of "blood" and "food" and "good";
 "Mould" is not pronounced like "could"
 Wherefore "done", but "gone" and "lone"
 Is there any reason known?
 To sum up all, it seems to me,
 Sounds and letters don't agree.

In deep solitude I walk,
Around me greets my eye
The smiling flowers, the laughing wind,
All in one adoration bow before the Maker.
Then I remembered, "what is man,
That Thou art mindful of him."
Then I prayed, "Lord grant me,
The smile of the flower and the laughter of the wind."

Moving On!

This year has indeed been full,
With all its happy moments and memories of silver.
Now they are imbedded in our thoughts,
And will travel with us until time and memories cease.
As we part remember:

Be big enough to live the life God gave you,
Untouched by petty selfishness, and greed —
Stand free from foolish habits which enslave you,
Be big enough to meet your greatest need.

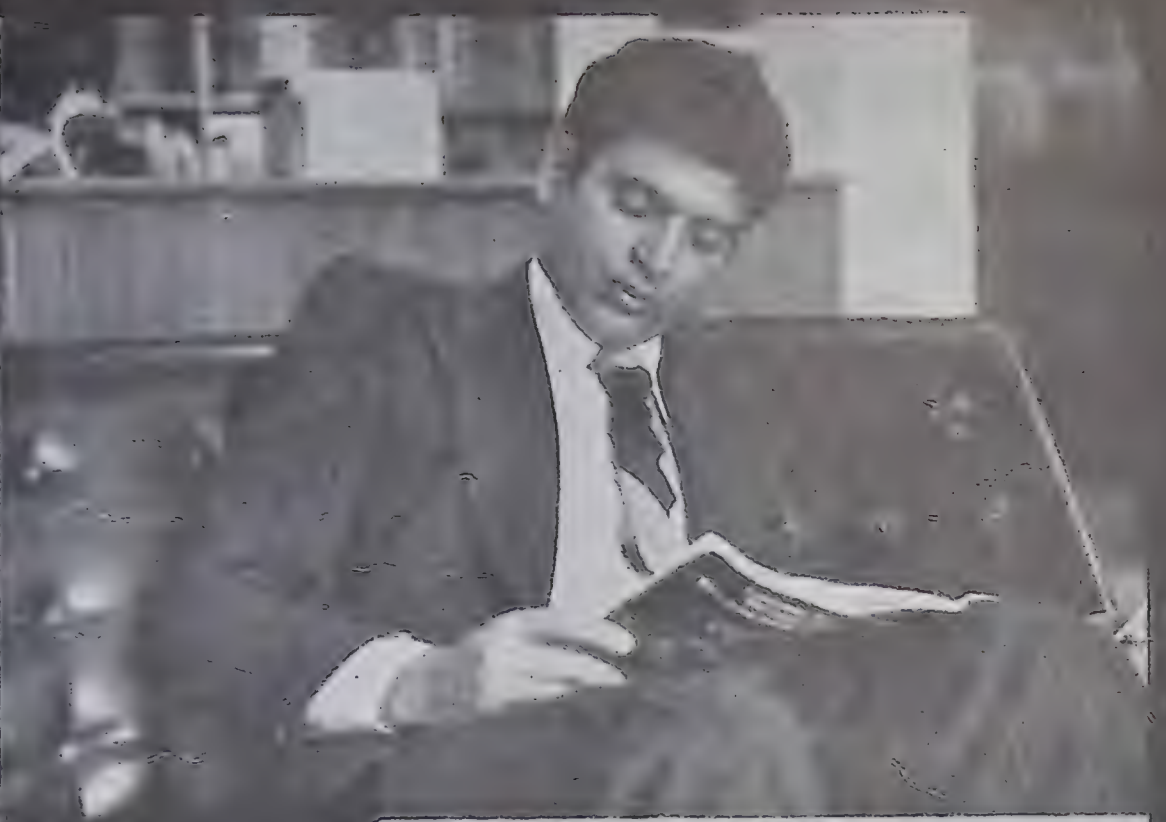

Be big enough to speak the truth —and live it,
Hold your ideals though the heavens fall—
Expect no quarter, yet be quick to give it—
Be big enough to heed the humblest call.

Be big enough to smile when all about you,
Your very world lies crumbled in the dust—
Have courage to fight on when friends doubt you,
Be big enough to keep your faith and trust.

Be big enough that changing years may find you,
Regretting not the ones you've left behind—
Be quick to throw off prejudice which blinds you,
Be big enough to keep an open mind.

Be big enough to say, "I was mistaken,"
Be slow to take offense —quick to forgive—
Let pity, justice, love in your heart waken,
Be big enough and kind enough to live.

Dear Mrs. Koozenny.

This is a small note to show my gratitude for the help and learning, you have helped me accomplish. What has affected me most is your kindness and patience in dealing with you other people.

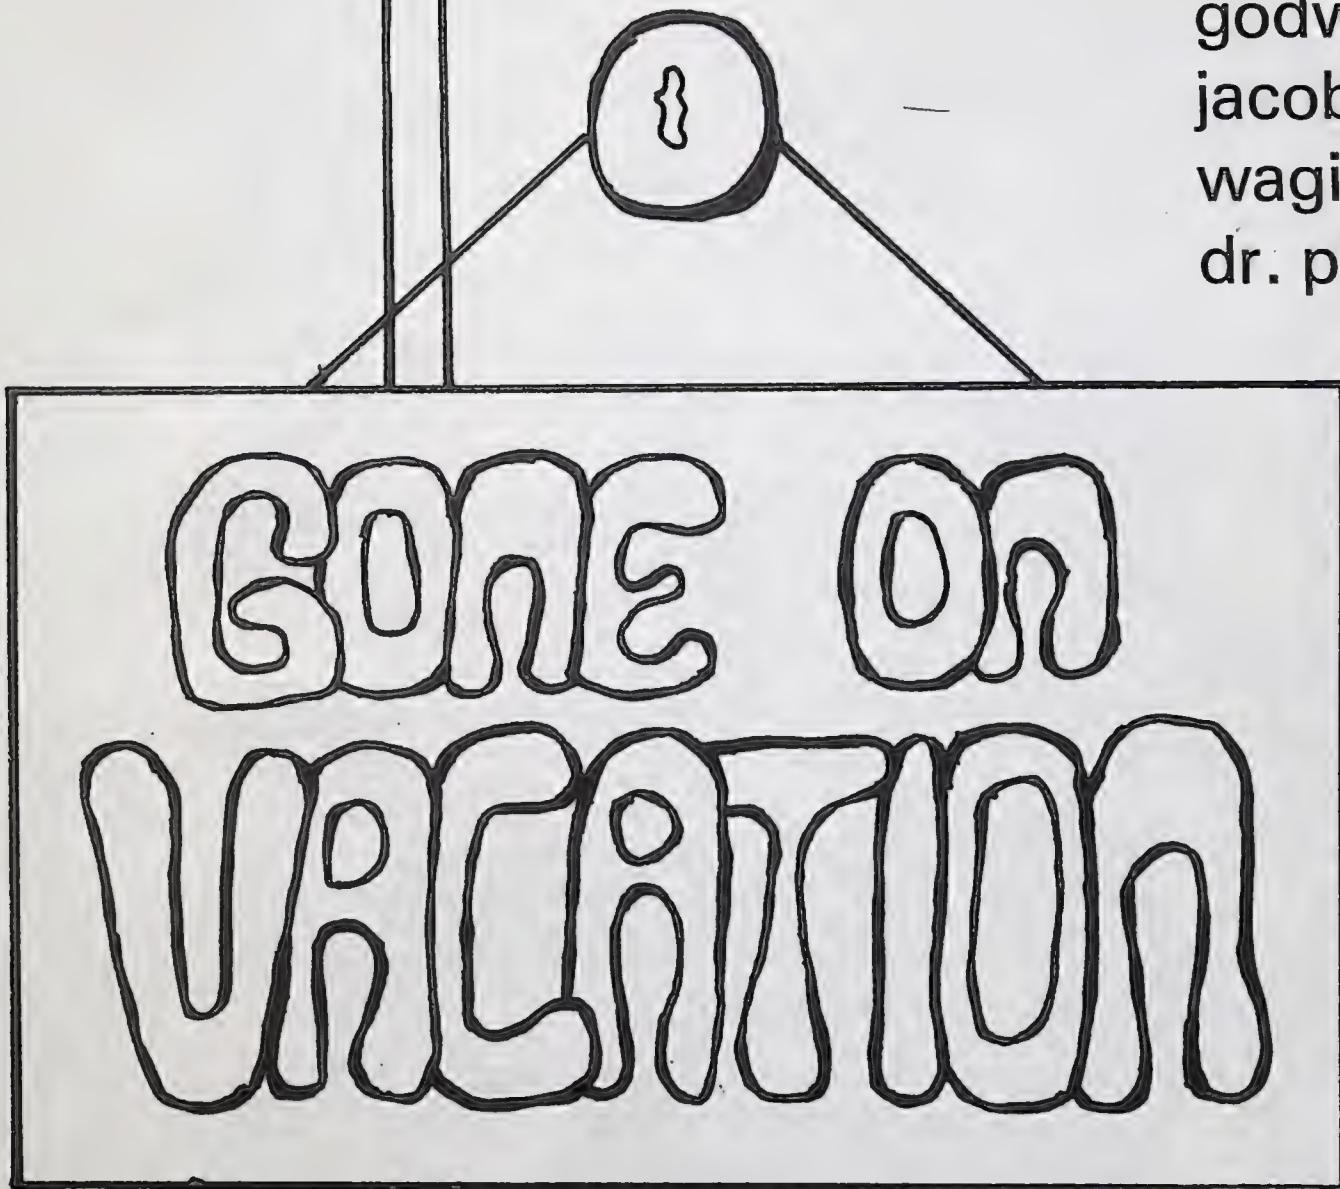

I will always remember you, as my sweet-hearted teacher with a kind smiling. Thank you kindly for your help; in helping me to become a choral member, and it has been a pleasure working with you as a Intensive English student.
